WRIGHT-PATT CREDIT UNION NAMED ONE OF DAYTON'S FASTEST GROWING COMPANIES BY THE DAYTON BUSINESS JOURNAL

Beavercreek, OH – Wright-Patt Credit Union® (WPCU®) has been recognized by the Dayton Business Journal as one of the fastest growing companies in the region. WPCU is honored to be the only financial institution among the top 30 companies on this year's list.

This recognition reflects more than financial performance—it is a testament to WPCU's unwavering commitment to its members and the communities it serves. "We don't grow for the sake of growth," said Tim Mislansky, President and CEO of WPCU. "We grow so we can continue to be a caring financial partner—one that builds hope, improves financial wellbeing, and helps people through life."

The Fastest Growing Companies list evaluates organizations based on revenue growth from 2021 to 2024. WPCU's inclusion highlights its strategic efforts to expand access, enhance member value, and invest in the long-term wellbeing of its member-owners.

"Our growth is driven by purpose," added Mislansky. "It allows us to serve more people, create more opportunities for our partner-employees, and strengthen our ability to deliver the value our members have come to expect."

WPCU's placement on the list reflects its strong financial performance, strategic growth initiatives and commitment to serving members with excellence. The credit union continues to expand its offerings and reach, while staying true to its mission of helping people achieve financial flexibility and freedom.
