

WHAT MAKES WPCU DIFFERENT IS YOU

Wright-Patt Credit Union® (WPCU) was founded on the principal of helping people keep more of their hard-earned money. And that same principal works for businesses, too. We help businesses keep more of their money, and that helps them continually invest in their success.

WHAT MAKES WPCU DIFFERENT?

As a credit union, more members means more financial strength, and that translates to lower fees, better interest rates, current technology, expert financial advice and extraordinary service.

Plus, unlike banks, credit union members are owners – with a vote. Every member’s opinion matters, and WPCU gives individual and business members a voice.

Our credit union is actively engaged in the communities we serve. Unlike large national institutions, WPCU is local, personal, and friendly. In fact, our partner-employees generously donate time, talents and money to local organizations, helping make our neighborhoods better places to live, work and raise a family.

Finally, there’s an important difference that sets us apart from a bank. We return profits back to our members, not stockholders. In recent years WPCU has given $105 million back to its members in the form of a Special Patronage Dividend. While a Special Patronage Dividend is not guaranteed, individual member and business use of WPCU services are a direct contribution. The more you use your credit union, the more you can gain.

Now that’s different!
